Emilie obtained her Civil Law degree (LL.L.) and Common Law degree (J.D. – National Program) from the University of Ottawa. Emilie is fluently bilingual (English and French) and offers services in both official languages.

Emilie articulated at a Family Law and Child Protection firm in Ottawa, Ontario and brings a client-centered and common-sense approach focused on achieving effective settlements, while respecting her client's best interests. Emilie is detailed oriented in her work and attentive to her client's needs to ensure that all clients are met with compassion and feel properly informed throughout every step of their life's transition.

Emilie has a strong interest in Mediation and Collaborative Family Law and promotes joint decision-making and cooperative negotiation, resulting in favorable and lasting comprehensive settlements for her clients. Emilie is in the process of developing and including these services in her practice and is being mentored by Senior Associate Lawyer, Nigel Macleod.
