Danielle obtained her Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts from the University of Guelph before completing her Juris Doctor at the University of Ottawa and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2016.

While at the University of Ottawa, Danielle completed the Dispute Resolution and Professionalism Option which provided her with in-depth and practical experience in dispute resolution processes, professionalism and advocacy. Danielle continues to develop these skills and encourages the use of negotiation and mediation, where appropriate, to enhance the decision-making capacity and preferred outcome potential for her clients.

Danielle articulated at a full-service firm where she focused on Family Law, as well as Wills and Estates Law. Danielle also has experience practicing in Civil Litigation. Danielle is dedicated to providing a personalized, common-sense approach to each of her Family Law and Wills & Estates Planning clients.
