As a member of the Law Society of Ontario since 1981 and an accredited member of the Ontario Association for Family Mediators, Nigel brings proven experience and depth to the family law department at AGB Lawyers.

Upon completion of his bachelor's degree in Social Sciences, Nigel completed his LL.B at the University of Ottawa. Subsequently he attended an advanced negotiation curriculum at Harvard Law School to further his negotiation skills and settlement-based practice.

After a successful tenure as departmental head of legal services in family law, Nigel continues in his role as Director and Strategic Counsel of the AGB Divorce Resolution Chambers. Apart from his specialized family practice in mediation and arbitration, his extensive litigation and process experience provides our family law lawyers with a distinct advantage in case management.

Nigel has maintained an advanced practice status as a professional family Mediator since 1997 and is a qualified Arbitrator in family law disputes. Contacting our Client Service Specialist will provide a solid foundation to choose and control your divorce strategy with a reliable family practitioner.
